VLADISLAV KLUNDUK

.NET DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

Hi, my name is Vlad. I am a .Net developer. From future work I expect to gain new and improve current knowledge, professional and career growth, friendly team.

It is possible to work full time with some restrictions associated with studying at the college. Ready to discuss this issue at the interview.

I love spending time learning programming and constantly improve my knowledge by studying various technologies and frameworks, applying this knowledge in practice
